

Understanding the Nature & Benefits of Mediation in the Resolution of Medical Disputes 16th & 30th November 2019

Who Should Attend?

Mediators

How to conduct the mediation of medical disputes in both clinical negligence and personal injury matters.

Attorneys

How and why to refer clients to mediation, and the role to be played by legal representatives in the mediation process.

Expert Witnesses

How to provide relevant, factual & explanatory reports to assist mediation processes and to understand the similarities and differences between a report for mediation and a report for litigation.

Highlights:

Judge Neels Claassen – Workshop Chairperson

Judge Roland Sutherland – Guest Speaker

The Role of Medical Mediation in Judicial Case Management – Rule 41A

Prof Ethelwynn Stellenberg – Golden Thread Lecture

Ethics of Mediation & Litigation

Adv Jacques Joubert – Guest Speaker (Mediation in Motion)

The Role of Legal Representatives in Medical Mediation

About this 2 Day Workshop:

The training will include:

- Lectures
- Interactive Discussions
- A Mock Mediation Demonstration
- A Golden Thread Lecture on the Ethics of Mediation/Litigation
- An Assignment

Benefits:

- Understanding the Essential Differences Between Mediation & Litigation
- Medico-Legal Practitioners will Learn the Benefits of Mediation in the Resolution of Medical Disputes
- Understand How all Decision Making is Guided by Ethical Principles
- Successful Participants Earn a Certificate from UCT Law@Work & SAMLA.
- Live Venues in Johannesburg, Cape Town & Durban
- All Sessions are Recorded and can be Viewed Online From Anywhere

Click here for the Registration Form

Click here for the Learning Outcome Statement & Programme

Click here for SAMLA Protocol – Medical Mediation